

RESIMAC partners with One Big Switch to release the first round of group-buying mortgage offers

Sydney, Australia, 3 October 2011 – Australian non-bank lender, RESIMAC Limited, has partnered with One Big Switch to help 40,000 Australian consumers negotiate low interest rate deals with lenders.

One Big Switch has launched their first round of mortgage offers to registered customers nationwide. This will provide members with the opportunity to secure the most competitive interest rate deals in the market, using the power of group-buying.

Allan Savins, Chief Operation Officer at RESIMAC Limited said: “We’re keen to be involved in initiatives that help non-bank lenders stay competitive in a changing mortgage environment. While we continue to provide unwavering support for our wholesale distribution channel, we are constantly looking at new ways to grow our business as well as engage with consumers to improve their perceptions and expectations of the non-bank sector.”

RESIMAC are passionate about bringing competition back to the mortgage market and believe this initiative will assist in this endeavour. The partnership with One Big Switch aims to give consumers access to cheaper home loan alternatives as the rising cost of living continues to put pressure on Australian mortgage holders.

ENDS

About RESIMAC

RESIMAC is a leading wholesale lender providing many Australian borrowers with a compelling mortgage alternative to the banking sector, broad product features and competitive interest rates. RESIMAC is a pioneer of residential mortgage backed securities (RMBS) and has issued nearly $12bn through 19 domestic and international RMBS issues, demonstrating its enduring presence as a leading non-bank issuer in Australia.

For more information on RESIMAC, please visit www.resimac.com.au.